

Florence, Italy

- Placement Availability:
- Fashion Design
 - Fashion Merchandising/Marketing
 - Accessory and Jewelry Design
 - Fashion Business
 - Fashion Modeling
 - Fashion Photography

- Requirements:
- Relevant course work or work/internship experience in the field
 - Intermediate level of Italian. Beginners should enroll in a program with 8 to 12 weeks of language training or in our Beginner's Package. Participants enrolled in the Beginner's Package should also start studying prior to departure (whether on their own or by taking one semester of beginner's Italian).

*Please see the Florence Internship Program (www.globalexperiences.com/internships/italy/florence) page for a full list of requirements for internships in Florence.

Placement availability and internship responsibilities will depend on the participant's experience in the field and language level.

Fashion Placements in Florence

While the majority of fashion companies are in Milan, Florence is a historically important city in the Italian fashion industry. Florence and nearby Prato still house many fashion, textile and buying companies and twice a year buyers from all over the world come to see the latest trends at the Pitti Immagini trade shows. Please visit our Florence Internship Program page to learn more about program costs, duration/breakdown, language training, etc. It is important to note that responsibilities will vary based on your language skills, experience in the field, and duration of your internship.

Recommended Start Dates for 2008:

Florence Fashion Highlights	Start Date
Pitti Immagini Spring/Summer Collections	February 4, 2008: 24 Week Program
	March 3, 2008: 20 Week Program
	April 28, 2008: 12 Week Program
	May 26, 2008: 10 Week Program
Pitti Immagini Autumn/Winter Collections	September 22, 2008: 24 Week Program
	October 20, 2008: 16 Week Program
	November 17, 2008: 16 Week Program

*Placements in Fashion in Florence are also available during our other Italy program start dates.

Intern responsibilities will not necessarily deal with tasks related to the Pitti Immagini trade shows.