Fashion Placements in Sydney

In order to make your Fashion experience in Sydney the most rewarding, we have created start dates that coincide with the most exciting and interesting periods in the fashion industry calendar. The start dates below are designed so that the internship portion of the program begins during the build up to the fashion shows during the Mercedes Fashion Week in Sydney (May) and Melbourne (October). The Mercedes Fashion Week in Sydney highlights the newest seasonal collections from Australian and Asia Pacific Designers. This schedule enables interns to experience this culminating time in the industry as well as the city from start to finish. Please visit our Australia Internship Program page to learn more about program costs, duration, etc. It is important to note that responsibilities will vary based on your experience in the field, and duration of your internship.

Recommended Start Dates for 2007:

Sydney Fashion Highlights	Start Date
Mercedes Fashion Week Autumn/Winter Collections	August 2, 2007 September 6, 2007 October 4, 2007
Mercedes Fashion Week Spring/Summer Collections	2008 dates to be announced. It is best to do an internship during the months of March, April, and May.

*Intern responsibilities will not necessarily deal with tasks related to the Mercedes Fashion Weeks.
